

PARENT TEACHER COUNCIL POLICY

Dear Parents,

At the Scholars, we believe that education is a shared responsibility between the home, the school and the community. Supportive parents, caring educators and active community members are partners in education working together for the benefit of children.

Scholars has established a Parents' Council in the academic year 2014-15 to welcome and encourage the active participation of our partners in education.

Why set up a Parent Council?

- Parent Council offer a way of involving parents effectively in the education of their children during offline and online.
- Decision-makers can find out parents' views more easily.

Benefits of Parents' Council for children

- Children behave better and achieve more when their parents are involved in their education
- Their parents receive advice on how to support their learning
- Their concerns can be resolved more quickly when their parents have a good relationship with the school

Benefits of the Parents' Council for parents

- Parents are able to express their views and know that they can make a difference
- They develop a sense of ownership
- They receive advice about how to support their childrens' learning
- They learn more about how the school operates
- They gain practical and emotional support from other parents

Benefits of the Parents' Council for the school

- A better understanding of parents' views and experiences
- A way of drawing new and different parents into active involvement
- A way of demonstrating that the school is engaging with parents
- Improves student behaviour and results, as parents have the biggest influence on the success of their children
- A chance to work with parents to find solutions to difficulties/ issues

What a Parent Council is

- a group led and run by parents, for parents

- a group which coordinates with the School Principal
- a group that is clear about its purpose and decides its own agenda
- a group that can advise the school on parental views
- a forum through which school can consult parents
- a place for parents to learn more about the school
- a place for the school to learn more about the parents

Parent collaborative endeavour

As a part of collaborative endeavour towards learning, the Scholars Indian Private School has planned to increase, improve and enhance the participation of the parent community in the school activities from the academic year 2014-15. Towards this direction, we invite the parents who can contribute a share of their talents for the development of the students and the school. Those parents who wish to leave their mark in the minds and hearts of the students are welcomed to mail their profiles stating clearly their interest / domain to rakscholars@gmail.com . The school would only be happy to respond to any queries related to this.

Some of the areas where parents can contribute:

- Coach an athletic team or any sports
- Address the morning assembly
- Make presentations of a topic in the curriculum
- Donate materials for projects
- Provide career guidance
- To be the part of online safety committee.
- Give awareness on online safety and cyber bullying.
- Provide proper education on online etiquette to the parent community of the school.
- To be the part of grievance committee.
- Involve in learning walk .

And what a Parents' Council is not

- a body that makes decisions for the school
- a replacement for the governing body
- a forum for complaints about individual teachers, students or parents

Procedures of PTC

Parent teacher council members will be selected in each academic year. A member will represent one class. Parents of K.G to grade 12 are involved in the committee and represent a class. Apart from parents school chairman, principal, vice principal, finance manager and supervisors are also the integral part of PTC.

A PTC meeting will be held in first Tuesday of each month and discuss the academic and other school related matters. The school management always welcome the constructive ideas of PTC.

PTC member will be present in all important functions of school.
